

IMMERSE YOUR STUDENTS THROUGH DOMESTIC JOURNEYS

Over the Rainbow: Would you like to visit a city where more than thirty languages are spoken in the high school, a city that sits on the former border with Mexico, a city with African and Asian markets, a city where the first Catholic Mass was celebrated in 1541? Is it Los Angeles, San Francisco, Santa Fe? Maybe Dallas or San Antonio? None of these—it's Garden City, Kansas! Starting in the 1980s, the meat processing industry began attracting new immigrants to the area, people coming from Southeast Asia, from Africa, and from Latin America. What has grown in this garden is a community that doesn't tolerate diversity—it celebrates diversity. Located not far from Dodge City and the Oklahoma and Texas Panhandles, visitors will also enjoy the beauty and history of the Great Plains, and they will get up close with a bison herd.

Father Tolton Tours and the origins of Black Lives Matter: Father Augustus Tolton was born a slave near the town of Hannibal, Missouri (home to Mark Twain). He became the first Black-identified Catholic priest in the United States. There is currently a cause for his canonization as a saint in the Catholic Church. Travelers will learn about the history of slavery through visits to sites associated with the Underground Railroad, Lincoln, Twain, and Dred Scott. They will also explore current issues in St. Louis and Ferguson, birthplace of the "Black Lives Matter" movement.

Memphis: It was here that Martin Luther King was assassinated on a balcony of the Lorraine Hotel. That site is now the home of the National Civil Rights Museum, dedicated to continuing King's dream of justice and equality. Memphis is also home to the world-famous Saint Jude's Hospital. Travelers will have time to explore one of the most culturally gifted cities in the United States, home to Rock-and-Roll and Soul.

If you don't mind some long drives, the Tolton/Black Lives Matter 3-day and the Memphis 3-day can be combined into a 1-week journey.

Chicago: The founders of America's third largest city were Jean Baptiste Point du Sable, a Haitian man of African descent, and Kithawa, his Potawatomi wife. The city has been a magnet for immigrants and a rainbow of cultural diversity ever since. It holds one of the largest Mexican populations in the world. Travelers will explore the rich cultures and learn about the many social services that make up Chicago's present day.

Louisville: Historically known as the "Gateway to the South," Louisville has a long history in the struggle for racial justice that continues to this day. The Muhammad Ali Center is one resource in learning about racial justice, and the Thomas Merton Center provides a distinctively Catholic perspective on racial justice. Like many places, Catholic institutions in Louisville have had to come to terms with their history of slave ownership. Visiting with the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, there is the opportunity to understand a history of both slave holding and work for racial justice.

SAINT CHRISTOPHER JOURNEYS

EDUCATIONAL TRAVEL FOCUSING ON JUSTICE THROUGH A CATHOLIC LENS

Would you like to take a group of college students on a journey either for academic credit or as a service experience, and you're not sure where to start? Saint Christopher Journeys can take care of everything for you—collecting travel documents and fees, arranging transportation and accommodations, providing materials to build a syllabus for your class, helping you organize pre-journey and post-journey meetings, providing materials for prayer and reflection, and more. All you need to do is recruit ten students. If your school will cover your costs, your students pay less, and group size can be less than ten.

How is Saint Christopher Journeys different from other study abroad companies? The purpose of Saint Christopher Journeys is: Educational Travel Focusing on Justice through a Catholic Lens. On a Saint Christopher Journey, you will visit museums and shrines, just like you would with another organization. You will also visit faith-based schools, orphanages, refugee shelters, hospitals, and other social services doing justice in their communities. In addition, your group will be provided with resources for reflection and social analysis informed by Catholic Social Teaching. On your journey, your students will do some direct service with those in need. In short, on a Saint Christopher Journey, you go deeper.

What if not all my students are Catholic...and I'm not Catholic? The agencies with which we work for site visits are all faith-based, and we can include Protestant, Jewish, and Muslim sites if you like. Also, we provide materials for reflection, but it is up to you which you use and how you use them.

If your university or sponsoring institution pays for the cost of the group leader, the fee for your student participants decreases significantly, and the minimum number of students reduces from ten to five. The fee for that group leader is also reduced because overhead and charity are not charged on the leader's fee.

Fees include airfare from Midwest and Eastern U.S. airports, ground transportation, health/travel insurance, shared-room housing, meals, and museums. There can be some slight variations in cost (up or down) based on particulars of dates and accommodations. The price is finalized before your organization enters into a plan with Saint Christopher Journeys. Keep in mind that if your students are earning credit, they might be able to include the cost of travel in their financial aid package.

Want to purchase your own flights? Already have a group travel insurance policy through your school? We can adjust to fit your needs and your budget!

10% of the student fees are donated to local charities in the communities visited.

Saint Christopher Journeys are restricted to adults 18 and older who are legally self-responsible. Journeys do involve walking on unpaved paths, using stairs, long rides and flights, limited menus, and not always with air conditioning. You need to keep these things in mind before choosing to make a journey.

How does a student journey differ from an adult journey? The student journeys are a bit longer, and they may involve some direct service. Accommodations are more basic, but still safe and comfortable. For faculty/staff or alumni/ae groups, take a look at the adult group journeys. They might be a better fit.
